A REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF CONGRESS ON IMPEACHMENT.

Gen. Sam. Carey, representative in Congress from Cincinnati, and the only Republican member who voted against impeachment, in a speech delivered before a working man's meeting in that city on Monday night, thus gives his reasons for his vote:

I will now give you briefly my reasons for voting against impeachment. In the first place it has, in all the history of this Government, from Washington down, been regarded as the President's right to select his Cabinet officers in every administration, and to remove them at his pleasure. You remember when Duane was Secretary of the Treasury, and he was ordered by General Jackson to remove the deposits, contrary to the law of Congress. He refused, and Jackson said: "Step out sir: I will find some one who will." [Applause.]

Yes, my countrymen, it has been the uniform practice, and has been regarded as indispensible to the wise and legitimate administration of this Government, that the President should have Cabinet officers who should be his confidential advisers and friends. Ain't that right? Yes; and these very men, these very judges who are sitting to-day on this trial of impeachment thought so. When Mr. Lincoln was President of the United States it was supposed that one member of his Cabinet was not in sympathy with him—Mr. Montgomery Blair. Senators, including Wade and Sherman, of Ohio, and Sumner of Massachusetts, to the number of twenty-four, addressed a letter to Mr. Lincoln, in which they used this language:

"The President of the United States should be aided by a Cabinet council agreeing with him in political principles and general policy, and all important measures and appointments should be the result of their combined wisdom and deliberations."

That's good sense, isn't it? They then go on to say that Mr. Montgomery Blair does not entertain that relation towards Mr. Lincoln—that he is not in full sympathy with him—and then add:

"The Cabinet should be exclusively composed of gentlemen who are the cordial, resolute and unwavering supporters of the principles and purposes of the President of the United States.

Here, then they charge Mr. Johnson with being guilty of high crime, in this that he wanted a Cabinet Minister who was in full sympathy with him with the administration. Those men say he ought to have it, and every President ought to have it, and I say so. It doesn't matter whether he be Democrat or Republican, the confidential advisers of the President should be in sympathy and harmony with him. He has a member in the Cabinet who does not speak to him; that is in open and direct hostility to him, and will not go and sit in Cabinet Council with him and he wanted to get him out. [A voice, "Kick him out."] Yes. [Laughter.] If General Jackson was in there he would touch him with the toe of his boot. [Cheers.]

Think of the precedent we are setting. Suppose we should have a Democratic Congress and a Republican President one of these days, and the Democratic majority should say: "There is no use in trying to do anything with this Republican President; Let us kick him out." "Oh well," some one says, "what can you get up against him?" But they can say "what did they have against Mr. Johnson" [A voice—"that's it."] And if you can impeach one President and turn him out under the present charges, what President is hereafter safe when the majority in Congress is opposed to him?" [Cheers.] It is no matter to me how bad a man Andrew Johnson is. I am not his apologist and defender. A man told me to-day, "Ah Carey, you have been Johnsonized." But have I gone over to Johnson because I dare to say that he or any other man shall be protected by the laws of the country. [Cheers.]

Mr. Carey continued by saying that Andrew Johnson could only remain in office a year longer. Stanton had lost self-respect by acting as he did; and even those who had advised Stanton to remain in the War Office had a contempt for his action in so doing. He referred to Ben. Wade's sitting on the trial, and said that by the spirit if not by the letter of the Constitution, Mr. Wade had no right to vote in the Court of Impeachment. If Mr. Wade did vote in that Court," "he ought to be spit upon by the whole civilized world." [Applause.]

ADVICE TO YOUNG MECHANICS.

In referring to the growing inclination on the part of young men, after they have served long and hard apprenticeships to acquire a good trade, to abandon this mode of making a living and to enter the legal or medical profession, where it is supposed greater emoluments can be secured and larger honors won, a cotemporary well observes that in nineteen cases out of twenty such ventures are failures, for two reasons: First, the professions require peculiar talent and the most thorough education. As a rule, apprentices to the trades have neither the time nor the means to acquire this education. Hence, when a mechanic at the end of his apprenticeship aspires to and enters any one of the professions, he does so at a great disadvantage. He may be a fluent speaker, know how to argue a point in a debating society or harangue a crowd at a ward meeting, but such talents do not fit him for the legal profession. He may know how to extract a splinter from his own hand, how to make a salve, how to mix a powder or administer a pill, but all this, while it might qualify him as a good nurse, does not fit him for the medical profession. The fact is, the young men who abandon their trades are tempted to do so by a feeling of false pride, erroneously imagining there is no honor to be secured in a pursuit of the mechanical arts. History proves the fallacy of such suppositions.

The brightest names which now adorn the annals of all countries are of the best mechanics who have blessed mankind with the productions of their genius. All that is beautiful and grand is the result of improvement in mechanics. The pendulum, the mainspring, the barometer, thermometer, printing press, steam engine, locomotive, sewing machine, telescope—all, all are the result of mechanis' arts, making those famous who produce them, and the people great who adopted them.

A good mechanic who becomes a pettifogger or quack, merely because he is too proud to work at his trade, is, indeed, a pitiful object. A man of the right mental balance, who has proper mental form, with the necessary independence, will win as much honor and as fair a living in the trades as in the profession; indeed, an indifferent lawyer or doctor lacking briefs or patients is always a miserable being, a bad example in the community. Let our young mechanics, then, become ambitious in their own vacation. If they dignify their trades by becoming proficient therein, the trades will dignify them with the highest honors. If mechanics pursue their business with a purpose to self-improvement therein, and not merely to hammer and file and saw, but to improve the art, to develop something new therein, the mind will be strengthened as the arm becomes muscular, and the heart of the mechanic will be made to swell with as true a pride as ever glowed beneath the doublet of a prince. Will the young mechanic think of these truths?

"THAT'S HOW."—After a great snow-storm, a little boy began to shovel a path through a large snow-bank before his grandmother's door. He had nothing but a small shovel to work with.

"How do you expect to get through that drift asked a man passing along.

"By keeping at it," said the boy, cheerfully; "thats how!"

That is the secret of mastering almost every difficulty under the sun. If a hard task is before you stick at it. Do not keep thinking how large or how hard it is; but go at it, and little by liittle it will grow smaller and smaller, until it is done.

IF YOU desire to impress the public that you have the best wares, and the best prices, and are worthily entitled to their patronage, ADVERTISE YOURSELF. Do not expect to accomplish everything with one trial, nor three, but KEEP AT IT, and you will surely win.

Have some SYSTEM about your advertisement, and let that be your shovel, then dig away at the people—KEEP AT IT, and you will as surely get through the dull times and bring more custom than you can attend to, as that boy went through the drift with his small shovel.

A WESTERN paper says that the death of the American Gorrilla, by the burning of Barnum's Museum, may be considered as a public calamity, inasmuch as it deprives the Radicals of one of their most promising Presidential candidates.

THAD STEVENS says that the constitution, the fundamental law, "is too old fashioned for this progressive age." So, no doubt, in his views, are God's laws.

THE VARIOUS IMPLEMENTS OF MASONRY.

The various Implements of Masonry, as emblematical of our conduct in life, afford us many very useful lessons which we will do well to heed. The Holy Bible is one of the great lights of the craft, one that we cannot fail to follow if we would be true to our principles, and measure up to the standard required of us. It will guide us in the way of truth, that adorns and strengthens the character of man. It will lead us into the temple of true and abiding happiness, and secure for us an entrance into the Grand Lodge Room on high. "It enriches the memory, it elevates the reason, it enlivens the imagination, it directs the judgment, it moves the affections, it controls the passions, it quickens the conscience, it strengthens the will, it kindles the sacred flame of faith, hope and charity, it purifies, ennobles, sanctifies the whole man, and brings him into living union with God. It has light for the blind, strength for the weak, food for the hungry, drink for the thirsty; it has a counsel in precept for every sorrow, a balm for every wound; of all the books in the world, the Bible is the only one of which we never tire, but which we admire and love more and more in proportion as we use it. Like the diamond, it casts its lustre in every direction; like a torch, the more it is shaken the more it shines; like a healing herb, the harder it is pressed the sweeter is its fragrance." The holy Bible lies open before every member of the Order, and points out the whole duty of man. Walk in this great light that you may reflect honor upon the Order, whose foundation principles are the truths herein revealed.

Then, by other emblems we are taught to regulate our actions, our every movement by the principles of morality and virtue; and in our different stations among men and before God, to walk uprightly circumscribing our desires within proper limits. We are also directed to move right onward in the way of truth, turning neither to the right nor the left, and to avoid in our conversation and actions, dissimulation. The earnest student, as he advances in Masonry may also learn lessons appropriate to three principal stages in human life, viz: youth, manhood and age; and if true to these lessons, he may, as a Master Mason, "enjoy the happy reflection consequent on a well spent life, and die in the hope of a glorious immortality." Let all the implements and emblems of Masonry be carefully used and closely studied, and we shall ever and always deserve the title of "good men and true." We will come more fully to understand our duty to God, and to each other; there will indeed be enkindled in our hearts a flame of devotion to God, of brotherly love to each other, and charity to all mankind.—Keystone.

A REMARKABLE SPRING IN FLORIDA.—There is near Ocola, a remarkable spring, one of the largest of the great number known in Florida. It is called Silver Spring. I found it in the midst of a lone hammock, overflowing its banks. It bubbled up in a basin thirty-seven feet deep and about an acre in extent, filling and overflowing it, and sending from it a deep stream fifty or sixty feet wide, and extending eight or nine miles to the Oklawana river, into which it empties. In the spring itself fifty steamboats may lie at anchor, and in the stream, steamboats of considerable draught. The spring thus forms a natural inland port, to which three steamers now run regularly from the St. John's. The clearness of the water is truly wonderful. It seems even more transparent than air. You see on the bottom, thirty feet below your boat, the exact form of the smallest bebble, the outline and color, and shades of color of the leaf which has sunk. Large fish swim in it, every scale visible, and every movement distinctly observable. The water is impregnated with lime and magnesia, but has no appreciable taste, and is excellent drinking water. If you go over the basin in a boat you will see the fissures in the rocks, from which the river pours upward like an inverted cataract. There are more of the springs in the channel of the stream, further down. Such springs are almost common in Florida. Clay Spring, near the east bank of Lake Apaka, pours forth a navigable stream into the St. John's. Bug Spring, on the west side of Lake Harris, is nearly as large as Silver Spring. I have laughed at a story of a spring in Iowa, which was large enough to turn a mill, but I can swallow all such tales now, after having seen one that will float a fleet.—Cincinnati Commercial.

"A MAN who'll maliciously set fire to a barn," said Mr. Slow, "and burn up twenty cows, ought to be kicked to death by a jackas, and I'd like to do it."

BALLADS are the gipsy children of song, born under green hedgerows, in the leafy lanes and by-paths of literature, in the genial summer time.

"THE happiest conversation," says Dr. Johnson, "is that of which nothing is distinctly remembered, but a general effect of pleasing impress."

NOTHING so adorns the face as cheerfulness; when the heart is a flower, its bloom and beauty pass to the features.

TURKISH WOMEN.

One of the greatest obstacles to the successful civilization of Turkey is the condition of the female sex there. The theory of the Turks is that women are created to be slaves and bear children. As a consequence, their education and refinement are wholly neglected. Their ignorance is accompanied with an amount of superstition and fanaticism almost beyond the imagination. They give themselves up to the ideal entirely. Their minds are peopled with spirits and genii that hold high carnival and dethrone the reason. When sick, the spiritual physician attends before the regular practitioner, and his means of disenchantment are often more potent than medicines. The priest has unlimited sway over their beliefs, and that he has power to exercise the devil, raise the dead, and perform countless miracles, is accepted as part of their religious teaching. Their devotion to the Koran and to the Mohammedon religion is as sincere as it was 1,200 years ago. Indeed, female society is the same in Turkey as it was hundreds of years ago.—Yet these women, steeped in superstition and ignorance, revelling in the errors of heathen ages and reeking all over with unchristian and uncivilized enormities, are the mothers and teachers of the Turkish youth. Reform is impossible with them, for the efforts of the priests all tend to keeping them in this dark condition, and the interests that husbands take in the reformation of even their own harems is too remote to accomplish any good. Some of the more enlightened Turkish men speak of reforms and education, but never in connection with the women of the land. Until the female sex are relieved from their barbaric ignorance; until the load of superstition that now sinks them far below the scale of mortals is raised; until these mothers and teachers of the young are rendered competent to fulfil their high trusts, we can expect but little in the way of Turkish reform.

DIETETICS—WHEAT BREAD.—A writer in the American Farmer writes as one learned in the chemistry of food. He says: "Our whole process of converting wheat into bread has, at almost every step, violated the laws of nature and disregarded her suggestions, and the reform must be a fundamental one. Wheat is, beyond all dispute, the most perfect article of human food, it being the only vegetable production yet discovered that contains all the elements necessary for the nourishment of the muscle, bones, fatty tissue, and brains, in just the right proportions. Beans, peas, Indian corn, and the other grains afford perfect nourishment for all the organs but the brain, by which term is included the spinal marrow and the nerves, which branch from the brain, and are identical in composition with it, the whole forming one system or set of organs. Now the pabulum of the brain is phosphorus, whose life-giving fire thrills along the nerves, and whose light illuminates the chambers of the mind—for could we rightly understand the correspondence between the material and the spiritual, we might see that light in the intellectual sense was something more than a mere figure of speech. The wear of the brain by study or any mental effort throws off the phosphorus which is found with other waste matter in the urine or other secretions. To keep the brain healthy and in working order, the waste must be restored by the use of food containing phosphorus, and that food is wheat.

"It would seem as if wheat was made for brain food, and man, the only animal that works with his brain, is the only consumer of it. But by a strange caprice, the promptings of his intuitions are overruled by his tastes, and in this particular instance, to his great detriment, nearly every particle of this brain-nourisding phosphorus is found in the hull or bran of the wheat, which, when separated from the flour, for the sake of merely gratifying the eye with the sight of white bread, carries with it all the superiority which wheat possesses over a dozen other kinds of cheaper vegetables. In addition to this, the mechanical action of the bran on the internal organs keeps them in a healthy state, and supercedes the necessity of pills and other cathartics, which many people are obliged to use habitually. This matter of making flour of the whole wheat is well understood, and approved by every school of physicians, and through their recommendation to their patients, and the teachings of health journals, its use is becoming somewhat common, and wheat meal, as it is called, is a staple article in the markets."

WHY is coffee like an axe with a dull edge? Because it has to be ground.

A writer in an Eastern paper says there "ought to be a new edition of Father Grant's story published immediately, with copious illustrations, not forgetting, as the most prominent of them all, that of Grant, junior, riding on a mule with a monkey on his back. Such an illustration, although retrospective, would be quite apt to-day; for is not Grant riding a mule; the animal sometimes represented by Andy Johnson and sometimes by Thad. Stevens and the Radical party? But which ever animal he rides he always carries a monkey on his back in the shape of the politicians. What effect this literary contribution may have on public opinion or how it may be used by the Bohemians and other men of genius we know not. We know, however, what was the effect of General Scott's speeches about the sweet Irish brogue and delightful German accent, the delicate allusions to a garment which shall be unmentionable, and the hasty plate of soup, the fire in the rear and all the other well-timed and ill-timed allusions of that disappointed politician; but we cannot conceive what the effect may be of this paternal biography on the fortunes of Gen. Grant."

TOO BAD.—A little girl, dressed in bloomer costume, who had been seated between her elder sister and beau during a drive to the country, on her return accosted her ma thus: "Ma, I won't ride with siter Jane and Thomas Smith any more, for he keeps a hugging and kissing her all the while.—Now, just see how he mussed up my pretty bloomer hat," at the same time holding up to the astonished mother's view a dilapidated-looking bloomer. "Susan! Susan! how can you talk so?" was the mother's exclamation. "It can't be possible that your sister allows Mr. Smith to take such liberties!" "Yes, but it is possible," was the reply of the mischievous little minx; "and mother, she likes it, for she leans up to him just like brother Jack's Guinea pig when he scratches his back."

COULD'NT STAND IT.—An adipose friend whose snoring power is so great that on a summer's night a watchman roused the family, thinking some one was dying in the house, lately stopped at a hotel in Maine. Aware of his infirmity, he requested the man to give him a room as distant from other dormitories as possible, that he might not disturb their tenants. He retired in due time, and fatigued by travel, sunk into slumber and soon began to snore, the sound gradually increasing from that of a droning bagpipe to the loudest trooper's bugle. At length he was aroused by a tremendous pounding at his door, which he opened and inquired: "What do you want?" "Want!" exclaimed the fellow who had waked; "Want! quiet to be sure. I've slept in a saw mill; but, hang me, if I can stand your noise."

IN the darkest days of the Atlantic telegraph enterprise, a friend of Cyrus Field's bought ten thousand dollars of stock for a ten dollar bill. Mr. Field offered to take the stock at a considerable advance. "Well, but what do you advise me to do, Mr. Field?"—"Take your stock home," was the reply; "lock it up in your safe, and never look at it, or think of it till you come to me for your dividends on it." And that man is now receiving on his investment of ten dollars, eight hundred dollars per annum in gold.

SERFDOM IN RUSSIA.—A report of the condition of the Russian serfs, at the beginning of 1868, has just been published. From this it appears that there are still 3,629,382 serfs not emancipated. The number of the emancipated serfs is now 6,146,635, including 1,168,140 in Lithuania. Of these only 518,529 have obtained their emancipation by voluntary agreements entered into by their masters. The remainder have become proprietors through the intervention of the government, which has appropriated some $300,000,000 for the compensation of the old landholders.

"TOMMY, my son, fetch in a stick of wood." "Ah, my dear mother," responded the youth, "the grammatical portion of your education has been sadly neglected; you should have said; "Thommas, my son, transport from that recumbent collection of combustible material upon the threshold of this edifice, one of the curtailed excrescenses of a defunct log."

A GENTLEMAN who had been justice of the peace for thirty-five years, was not allowed to register in the State of West Virginia, because he purchased a horse named Stonewall Jackson; the register remarking "that he'd be d—d if any "trooly loil" man would own a horse by that name.

A SOBER PROPOSITION.—A man who had been fined several weeks in succession for getting drunk, coolly proposed to the magisrrate that he should take him by the year at a reduced rate.

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THE recent elections everywhere show the most gratifying results. The people seem, at last, to realize the impending danger to our free institutions, and are making a bold stand against tyranny and usurpation. In Connecticut the fight was hotly contested.—The State swarmed with Radical stumpers from every part of the Union, and money was spent with a profligacy never before equaled in this Country. The Radicals looked upon it as the battle ground and turning point in the coming Presidential canvass. The portrait of General Grant was printed upon the Radical tickets, and his name was at the mast-head of every Radical newspaper. Every issue before the people entered into the contest; Grant, Reconstruction, Negro Suffrage, Impeachment and the next Presidency. The people met the issues! money, power, patronage and corruption on one side; honesty, patriotism and devotion to the institutions of our fathers on the other. The result was more than could have been expected. The Democratic majority of last year was nearly doubled, and the proud old State and her gallant Democracy stand firm and undaunted for the Union. All Hail! glorious old Connecticut.—She is an Oasis in the surrounding desert of fanaticism.

As in Connecticut so all over the country. The Democracy made gains everywhere. In Michigan, a Radical State, Negro suffrage, the pet measure of the party, was squarely before the people in the form of an amendment to the Constitution, and it was voted down by a majority of thirty thousand. In Wisconsin the Radical majority was greatly reduced. In nearly every City and town of the West, we either elected our ticket or reduced the former overwhelming majorities against us. Thus the people have stamped their disapprobation upon the dangerous heresies of Radical leaders and turned again to the old landmarks for safety.

THE Radical journals are clamoring loudly, just now, for the expulsion of Hon. Richard Yates from the Senate of the United States. They say he is a habitual drunkard. They have but lately discovered this; and, of course, the pure morals of the "God and morality" party are shocked beyond measure. Their display of virtue, on this occasion is truly astonishing, and we trust there will be no turning back in their good work, until they have purified the Senate by casting out the devils, even though their name is legion. But it strikes us they will meet with serious obstacles. How many Radicals will they have left in their Rump Congress, when they have finished their work? This thought will occur to them, and they will probably stop about the time they have got rid of every Senator who shows a disinclination to serve the Impeachment Conspirators. The truth is the Rads are afraid of Yates. They think he cannot be brought in under the party lash to vote for Impeachment, that he will hesitate before perjuring himself to depose the President. "Only this and nothing more."

THE opening speech of Judge Curtis in the defence of the President before the High Court of Impeachment was one of the ablest and most brilliant efforts of modern times. He spoke five hours, and was listened to with marked attention throughout, both by the Senate and the immense audience assembled to hear him. He analyzed the cunning sophistries of Beast Butler with a masterly hand, exposed their fallacies mercilessly, and flung them in tatters at his feet. The Articles of Impeachment fared no better. His citation of authorities was exhaustive and conclusive, vindicating the course of the President on every point. His speech made a deep impression, and struck consternation into the Radical ranks. Even the Radical papers, accustomed as they are to unblushing misrepresentation and falsehood, have been driven by the sheer force of public opinion, and by their own sense of the inherent weakness of their cause, to whine like whipped spaniels at the feet of the eloquent speaker, and admit at once his great ability, and the exalted purity of his motives.

THE "High Old Court of Impeachment," at Washington, is still in Session. The solemn farce of trying the President for "high crimes and misdemeanors" continues from day to day. At half past twelve the Court is opened by a ponderous proclamation from the Sergeant-at-arms. A few minutes later the House Managers are announced with all the pomp and solemnity of heavy tragedy men in a second class theatre, and they march in, the ugliest mugged set of miscreants unhung, followed by a small squad of the Reprehensibles, much after the manner of Falstaff's invincibles. The novelty of the proceedings at first attracted large crowds to the Senate galleries, but latterly very little interest is manifested. The country seems to have become disgusted with the whole affair. Large numbers of the House of Reprehensibles, have gone home, leaving scarcely a quorum to do business. Stevens, however, is at his post, dozing pathetically in his second infancy, at the Managers' table.

The other day General Thomas was on the stand, to testify his knowledge of the secret ways of Andy, and the General, be it said to his shame, was not at all awed, by the august presence of the "High Old Court." The proceedings seemed to have been turned into a sort of monkey show. Thomas quizzed blinky Butler and blinky Butler quizzed Thomas, and it was hard to tell which had the best of it. The scene was rich, rare and racy, exceeding any thing ever witnessed in Dan Rice's Circus. Everybody laughed uproariously, except the Chief Justice who bemeaned himself with becoming dignity, Butler who leered and blinked savagely and Stevens who sneered satanically. The rag, tag and bobtail on the white side yelled, "Bully for Thomas!" and the negroes cried, "Go in Ben!" Ben went in, Thomas went out, and the "High Old Court" took a recess for fifteen minutes to straighten their faces and take a drink in the lobby.

AMONG the Democratic gains in Ohio, over the vote for Governor last year, the following are the largest: Cincinnati gains 2,000; Toledo, 116; Hamilton, 100; Mansfield, 108; Urbana, 100; Lima, 64; Delaware, 200; Sandusky County, 300,—but the pen tires to recapitulate the scores of other towns with equal gains. The story is the same all through the State. It is noticeable that in the country towns a systematic circulation of Democratic papers has produced this result.

RICH.—The following is a part of the testimony of Adjutant General Thomas before the High Court of Impeachment:

Mr. BUTLER—I object to the conversation between the Secretary of War and General Thomas at a time which we have not put in, because we put in only the time when the other gents were there, and this was something which took place after they had withdrawn.

The CHIEF JUSTICE—If it was immediately afterwards, it was a part of the same conversation?

Mr. BUTLER—Does General Thomas say it was the same conversation

Witness—Mr. Stanton turned to me, and got talking in a very familiar manner with me; I said, the next time you have me arrested, please don't do it before I get something to eat.—[Laughter.] Have had nothing to eat or drink to-day. [Continued laughter.] He put his arm around my neck, as he used to do, in a familiar manner and ran his hand through my hair, and turned around to General Schriver and said: "Schriver have you got a bottle here? Bring it out." [Roars of laughter.] Schriver unlocked his desk and took out a small vial. The Secretary then proposed we should have a spoonful of whisky. I said I would like a little. General Schriver poured it out into a tumbler and divided it equally.

Mr. STANBERY.—He shared it then? A. He took the glasses up this way (indicating) and measured them with his eye, presently a messenger came in with a full bottle of whisky, and the cork was drawn and he and I took a drink together.

Q. Was that all the force exhibited that day? A. That was all.

IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

The Chief Justice at 12 .d. appeared and took the chair. The proceedings of the impeachment trial were then continued. The managers stated that they hae some additional evidence to offer. M. H. Wood, of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, was then examined, and testified that Mr Johnson, in a conversation with him (Wood) in 1866, had stated that he would only appoint those persons to office who favored his policy. Foster Blodgett, postmaster at Augusta, Georgia, testified that he had been suspended from office by the President in January, 1868. Mr. Butler produced the records to prove that no notice of this suspension has been sent to the Senate. The managers then closed their case and Mr. Curtis rose and delivered the opening argument for the defence. At 3.40 P. M. the Court adjourned. Mr. Curtis had not closed his argument and will resume its delivery to-day. The Senate was then called to order and immediately afterwards went into executive session, and at its close adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

The Chief Justice then took his seat and the proceedings of the impeachment trial were resumed. Mr. Curtis continued his argument in defence of the President and closed at 2 15 P. M. The examination of witnesses for the defence was then commenced by Mr. Stanbery. General Lorenzo Thomas was first called and sworn. The examination of this witness was very long. His testimony was very interesting and covered the whole ground of his appointment as Secretary of War ad interim, the instructions given him by the President, his interviews with Secretary Stanton, the interview with Karsner, &c., &c. When the witness was asked to relate what took place at an interview with the President after his demand on Mr. Stanton for the War Office, Mr. Manager Butler objected to his answering any questions as to what took place between the witness and the President after the issuing of his commission as Secretary ad interim. After a long discussion the question was referred to the Senate and it was decided that the witness should answer the question, only ten voting in the negative. At 5.20 P. M. the Court adjourned.

THE KU KLUX KLAN has carried terror to the souls of the Radicals.—They are more frightened than was Forney in regard to the Maryland military. General Meade has issued an order for their suppression, and it would not be surprising if Congress were to authorize General Grant to call out the troops and annihilate these desperate fellows. They ought to be impeached, as soon as captured, at all events. But while General Meade is arraying the authorities against these supposed monsters, would it not be advisable to take in hand also the Negro Loyal Leagues which are found by thousands in all the Southern States, and from which have emanated all the evils with which that section has been afflicted?

Why do not the authorities take hold of the doings of the Grand Army of the Republic, with Logan at its head? If the Ku Kluxians are as bad even as they are represented to be, they are no worse than the Loyal Leaguers of the South, and if the one has existence, and is to be exterminated, let the other, which, it is well known, abounds everywhere in the South, share a similar fate.

THE Radicals are in sore distress over the Connecticut election. In order to ease their minds upon this painful subject, they attempt to pooh-pooh the result, and announce that "the paltry Governorship" is of no account. Some years ago an impudent fellow laughed at an impending disaster which threatened him and tried to drive away his gloomy fears by the announcement that "it would not be much of a shower, after all." However, the flood came, and the poor fellow was drowned.

MICHIGAN rejects negro suffrage by a majority of 30,000, and the very next day her Senators both voted to allow negroes not only to vote, but to hold offices, in the District of Columbia.—They are evidently anxious to show that the Republican party has no intention of abandoning the doctrine of negro equality, or of confining it to the rebellious States.

POLITICAL DISCLOSURES.—"Mack," the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, gives an account of two recent conversations he has had with the President, in which the latter expatiated on the injustice that has been done him, especially in the matter of the impeachment. We make the following extract from this reported conversation:

I asked the President if Butler hadn't applied to him in 1865 for a Cabinet office. "No," he said "Butler himself never did, but his friends did it for him. A strong movement was made to get Butler in Stanton's place, and because it didn't succeed, Butler has been pretty sharp after me since. The idea was to put Butler in the War office at the first step towards reorganizing the democratic party with such men as he at the head of it."

I asked the President if Forney wansn't on the same track with Butler in the matter of reorganizing the democratic party, "Yes," he said, "he was; and he (Forney) began to grumble as early as December, 1864, just after the presidential election, because democrats like himself had been neglected and badly treated during Lincoln's first administration. The first thing he did was to write me a letter, hoping that when I came to the Vice-Presidency I would give him the control of some patronage that he said belonged to the office of Secretary of the Senate, but had of late years been given to the Sergeant-at-arms. He hoped I would change that. Then when I became President he was still more importunate for something or other that he wanted. He always wanted something. He thought he could take charge of me and control everything, and when I wouldn't let him do that he quarrelled with me. He is a mighty small man to quarrel with, but, if it was worth while, I could very easily show the motive of his opposition to me." The President also showed me a letter from Forney, Dated January 7th, 1865, in which the writer hopes the admission of Tennessee and Louisiana will not be embarrassed by the question of negro suffrage, and doesn't see now Northern men can vote to enfranchise the illiterate negroes of the South, while in nearly every State in the North the blacks are disfranchised.

IS GENERAL GRANT A DRUNKARD?—This important and interesting conundrum is now going the rounds of the Radical press—"Is General Grant a drunkard?" The Independent says he is; the Anti-Slavery Standard says he is; the Revolution declares that he is a drunkard; and Senator WILSON says that he "never saw him drink a glass of wine"—all of which is direct testimony that General GRANT is a drunkard. But the Tribune is the most willing of all these witnesses. We find in that journal yesterday an account of an interview with the President, wherein General GRANT's habits, in respect of inebriation, were fully discussed, and from which we learn that the President, on his trip to the West, "didn't drink half as much as one or two others about whom nobody" (excepting the editors of the Tribune, Independent, Revolutoin, and so on) "dares to say a word." The Tribune further intimates that when General GRANT left the Presidential party at Cleveland it was not because the General was disgusted with the President's politics, for in fact "he wasn't in condition to know much about politics just then." To be sure, the Tribune has heretofore taken the other view of this affair at the West, but then it has expressed diametrically opposite opinions in the same week with regard to its own circulation in that region. But in respect of General GRANT's drunkenness the Tribune is explicit; it publishes the statement that GRANT has called on the President "so drunk that he couldn't stand on his legs;" but that is nothing; Grant at the head and front of Cranberry-patch party "could not stand on his legs" in CONNECTICUT last Monday; only it is cruel for the Tribune to mention it. But it is magnanimous in the Tribune to come to the defence of the President against like charges, though it cruelly stabs GRANT in this very defence. "Some men," says the story in the Tribune, "will be abused like the devil" (the Tribune might have drawn it a little milder, but its loss of subscribers in the "Land of Steady Habits" has made that journal reckless) "for drinking a glass of whisky and water, while others in equally important stations may almost roll in the gutters, and not a word is said about it," excepting in such journals as the Independent and the Tribune. "Some" means the President; "others" is an allusion to General GRANT. But seriously, is this fair warfare on the part of the Tribune against General GRANT? If he is really the staggering and gutter-rolling drunkard the Tribune shows him to be, ordinary charity should cover the shame with silence.—N. Y. World.

RETIRING STATE SENATORS.—The terms of eleven senators expire with the present Legislature, as follows:

2. Jacob E. Ridgway, Republican, Philadelphia.
4. George Connell, Republican, Philadelphia.
11. George Landon, Republican, Bradford.
12. L. D. Shoemaker, Republican, Luzerne.
13. Warren Cowles, Republican, McKean.
18. A. Hiestand Glatz, Democrat, York.
19. David McConaughy, Republican, Adams.
22. Harry White, Republican Indiana.
23. William A. Wallace, Democrat, Clearfield.
25. James L. Graham, Republican, Allegheny.
27. R. A. Brown, Republican, Lawrence.

RADICAL EXTRAVAGANCE.—In the appropriation bill now before the Legislature the salary of the Auditor-General is fixed at $4000, and that of the Surveyor-General at $3000. The salaries are extravagantly high when we consider that neither of these officials reside in Harrisburg, and that the work of the offices is done by clerks. Speaking of this extravagance, the Patriot & Union says the Pensylvania Senate seems to hold an impression that the people of the State have little else to do than provide money for it to spend.

A THOUGHT FOR WORKING MEN.—The Pittsburg Evening Advocate, the workingmen's organ, calls attention to the fact that the depreciation in farm land in the south, since 1860, has been $636,000,000, every dollar of which is permanently lost to the nation. It urges the working classes to vote against the Radical policy of Congress which has produced such disastrous results, and assures them that depression in business and low rates of wages must continue until wiser councils prevail at Washington. The working men are beginning to see that every vote cast by them for Radical candidates is a vote against their own interests. The elections show that, Terrible Murder at Ottawa, Canada: Assassination of D'Arcy McGee.

OTTAWA, CANADA, April 7.—At half-past two o'clock this morning the Hon. D'Arcy McGee was shot dead by an unknown assassin, as he was entering the House of Mrs. Trotter, where he lodged, on Sparks street. The ball passed through his head and lodged in the door, which McGee was in the act of opening. A son of Mrs. Trotter, who is one of the Parliament pages, was returning home, and was some distance from the house when he heard the shot. On reaching his mother's door he found Mr. McGee dead on the pavement. He saw no person in the neighborhood and herad no footsteps. The night was bright and clear, and the assassin must have been either concealed behind the fence of a vacant lot opposite, or made a very hasty retreat immediately on firing the shot. Mr. McGee had just left the Parliament House, and had a cigar in his mouth when he was killed. His brains exuded from the wound, and the sidewalk was covered with his blood.

This fact, in connection with that of the ball lodging in the door post, seems to indicate that the weapon was held close to his head when fired. There have been, as yet no traces whatever of the assassin discovered.

OTTAWA, April 8.—Two men, named Whelan and Doyle, were arrested last night on suspicion of their having been concerned in the murder of D'Arcy McGee. It is said the suspicions against them are very strong.

At 9 o'clock this morning, a man named Dent, employed as a night watchman at the Parliament building, shot himself and died immediately.

The body of McGee was this morning conveyed to the Roman Catholic Cathedral, where the funeral services was performed, after which the remains were sent by a special train to Montreal, attended by members of the Cabinet and other distinguished men as pallbearers.

Eulogies on the deceased were delivered in Parliament last night. The cause of the assassination is generally attributed to Fenianism, which Mr. McGee had done so much to expose in Canada.

The family of Mr. McGee will be amply provided for by the Government.

Special dispatches from different provinces represent that a feeling of the deepest regret and indignation at the murder of Mr. McGee prevails throughout the country.

OTTAWA, April 9.—The coroners jury returned a verdict at a late hour last night, to the effect that the Hon. D'Arcy McGee came to his death by a gun shot wound inflicted by some person or persons unknown.

Information has been lodged against Whelan, charged with the murder.

Wm. Mitchell, John Doyle, and Ralph Slattery, of Philadelphia will be tried as accomplices of Whelan.

A PROPOSED TWO-STORY STREET.—A bill for tunneling Broadway, in New York city, has passed one branch of the State Legislature. The plan proposes not simply to tunnel Broadway, but to take up the whole street, in its whole width—carriage-way, sidewalks and all—and to a depth of fifteen or twenty feet; then it is to be reconstructed by building a roof on the level of the present street, and making a basement story for a second Broadway under the present one, through which six railroad tracks are to be carried; the traffic of the present street to be carried on upon the roof of the street below. This stupendous plan, it is said, cannot possibly be completed in less than ten years, and will cost at least ten millions of dollars per mile. New York is naturally very much excited over the scheme. It is probably impracticable.

TERMS for every description of Job PRINTING CASH! for the reason that for every article we use, we must pay cash; and the cash system will enable us to do our work as low as it can be done in the cities.

PRINTERS' INK has made many a business man rich We ask you to try it in the columns of THE GAZETTE

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of joboers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

THE "Act to provide for the collection of State, County, Poor and Military taxes" is before us. It has passed both branches of the Legislature and will undoubtedly become a law by the signature of the Governor. It changes entirely the manner of collecting the above taxes; making it the duty of the county Treasurer instead of township collectors as heretofore. A copy of the law will appear in the columns of this paper next week.

IN publishing the list of borough and township officers we no doubt made mistakes, owing to the manner in which some of the election returns were made out. In Schellsburg Bor., J. Espy Snively was elected Town Clerk, instead of his opponent whose name we published. We do not desire to take a feather from the plume of the gallant Democracy of Schellsburg, and therefore make this correction.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The friends of Temperance will hold a public meeting in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, the 29th of April, (Court week.) The meeting will be addressed by a number of persons. The ladies of Bedford Lodge of Good Templars will entertain the audience, at intervals, with choice vocal music. The public, and especially all friends of Temperance, are invited to attend.

A BILL has been introduced at Washington for abolishing all nickel and silver coins below and including the denomination of five, three and one cent coins, to be made of nickel, and of regularly increasing the size, the one cent being about a third in less diameter than the present; the head of Liberty on the obverse, and numerals to be I, III, and V, on the reverse of these cons; the numerals to be raised sufficiently to render the coins plainly distinct by touch, from gold and silver coins. It also proposes to abolish all ten cent notes, and lesser denominations for the future, but not to allow coinage of ten cent pieces in anything but silver.

A NEW EXPRESS COMPANY.—A bill has passed the Senate of this State chartering a company to be called the Pennsylvania Express Company. The corporators are Geo. K. Anderson, of Venango county, J. D. Cameron, of Harrisburg, Chas. Miller and J. Berry, of Philadelphia, and M. S. Quay, of Blair. Railroad, canal and insurance privileges are given to this new company, and it will no doubt be a formidable rival of Adams Express. If through its agency express charges are reduced the people will be benefitted to that extent.

DEMOREST'S PARLOR MAGAZINE.—This excellent Magazine is constantly growing in popularity, and the secret of its success is the conscientiousness with which it is conducted. It gives all, and more than all, that it promises. It strives to meet the wants of American women, and tells them what they want to know. It is not frivolous; its teachings are high, pure, and sound, characterized by good taste and common-sense. Its departments of music, needlework, braiding, patterns, etc., are either one worth the price of subscription, which is only $3.00 per year, with a handsome and valuable premium. Office, 473 Broadway N. Y.

No loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or even a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is grey or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A ALLEN'S improved (new style) Hair restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Price one Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

Petroleum V. Nasby relates that "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Resorative" had the effet to so renew the youth of his beloved wife that "she ran off with a Yankee peddler"—this is probably not the only instance where "Barrett's" has provided a captivating weapon in the hands of many a lady whose personal charms have been wonderfully brought out by the use of this excellent preparation.—Manchester (N. H.) Mirror.

LADIES, you are about to clean house; it will pay you well to have the interior of your house papered. It will save much labor, expense, improve the appearance of your rooms vastly and it will only cost you a trifle. Step up to the INQUIRER BOOK STORE and examine the splendid stock. A very fine assortment of Bibles and Prayer Books have just been received.

SUPERIOR GOODS in the Watch, Jewelry and Silver Ware line.—Advertisement in this issue, by Henry Harper. His stock is large, and purchasers will do well to give him a call.

THE UNITED STATES MINT.—The treasurer of the United States mint announces that he is now prepared to exchange, on demand, one and two-cent bronze and three and five-cent nickel copper coins for United States notes or drafts on Philadelphia or New York banks, payable in such notes. All remittances of notes or drafts should be addressed to the treasurer of the United States mint, Philadelphia.

TO DELINQUENTS.—The publisher of the Delaware Express has recently recovered at law thirteen years' subscription and costs from a delinquent subscriber who meanly pleaded the statute of limitations, which he claimed barred the account for all exceeding six years. The Judge held that it was a continuing contract which could not be affected by the statute. A righteous decision.

THE FULTON DEMOCRAT.—Smith M. Robinson has entered into partnership with John R. Donahoo, Esq., in the publication of the Fulton Democrat. The paper is soon to appear in new type, and will of course look well. We wish the new firm all manner of success.

FASHION'S PLATFORM.—One perfume, pure, refreshing and imperishable, and that perfume Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus." This is the platform of Fashion on this side of the Atlantic, and all the people say amen! —Jersey City Times.

MASONIC.—There are now two hundred and fifteen Blue Lodges in the State of Pennsylvania, with twenty-two thousand and forty-five members. The assets of the Grand Lodge are about $600,000, and the new Temple to be erected in the city of Philadelphia will cost three-quarters of a million of dollars.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of this place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew.

Send Clubs of ten or more, with 10 cts for each descriptive check, and the getter up of the club will receive a present worth $3 to $300, according to number sent.

☞SEND FOR OUR NEW CIRCULAR.

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.
Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $5.00; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one Dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.
Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies one year, $17; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Five copies, one year, $8.50, Ten copies, 1 year, $16.50; Twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each club of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of our "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON. Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. Publications.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
